AVANT-PROPOS

Les 50 tablettes publiées dans le présent volume proviennent des fouilles arabes de Djoḥa, l'antique Oumma, en assyrien Keš, elles sont toutes de l'époque des rois d'Our Doungi, Bour-Sin, et Gimil-Sin.

Elles forment par leur choix un ensemble intéressant pour l'histoire économique de Sumer : plusieurs nous renseignent sur l'organisation du travail (5665, 5668, 5669, 5670, 5674, 5675, 5676, 6171); trois apportent des données toutes nouvelles sur les opérations agricoles (5675, 5676, 6043) ; d'autres, sur l'industrie sumérienne, les métiers de vannier-calfat (la magnifique tablette à 10 colonnes 6036, le n° 6049), de tisserand (6054), de fabricant de parfums (6042), ou la bijouterie-joaillerie (6044, 6055); le n° 5673 est un inventaire de matériaux de construction et gréement pour l'armement de grands et petits bateaux ; un certain nombre de textes sont des comptes de négociants et constituent de véritables tables de prix comparatifs (5680, 6037, 6045, 6046, 6051, 6052, 6056, 6162, 6171).

On trouvera encore ici quelques textes juridiques, d'une interprétation toujours difficile, mais d'un intérêt également notable pour l'histoire des civilisations (6047, 6048, 6058, 6059, 6163, 6164, 6165, 6168, 6169, 6170.)

Au point de vue géographique, on peut noter une liste de prisonniers (6039) aux noms nouveaux et deux textes nous renseignant sur la population des villes sumériennes (6041, 6166).

Plusieurs documents nous permettent de reconstituer le Panthéon d'Oumma (5664, 5672, 6053) et d'entrevoir quel y était le culte des dieux (5667, 5671, 6040, 6055).

On notera enfin deux documents de cadastre (6060 et 5677) et une formule de date nouvelle (6050).

Il y a autant d'histoire dans ces modestes écrits que dans certaines annales de rois, et l'on y entrevoit certainement davantage la civilisation et la vie.
